Response to Form 990 PART III #1:

Overseas Volunteer For A Better India, Inc., has been organized to provide educational programs, benevolent assistance, rehabilitation, trauma & disaster relief and charitable giving to individuals and organization primarily in India & United States. More specifically, OVBI will provide a platform to address core issues affecting India such as Farmer suicides, trauma relief and benevolent assistance.

The organization also provides information about democratic processes & educate people about their rights, responsibilities and duties under their respective countries constitutions and the rights, responsibilities and duties of public representatives. OVBI, through its educational programs, will strive to create responsible and informed citizens who understand democratic processes and conventions and who do not take for granted benefits and responsibilities offered by democratic nations thereby helping to better the social and cultural fabric of the countries in which they live. By providing these educational programs, OVBI will equip individuals with tools to make informed decisions and choices in both democratic processes and their lives.

During 2018, OVBI spent $31,378 towards achieving such objectives. The amounts were spent primarily in educating individuals by organizing and participating in various events, aimed at stimulating participants to come up with relevant, socially responsible ideas that would help rehabilitation, trauma relief, education efforts, nation building and participation by individuals in such processes.

Response to Form 990 Part VI line 11: A copy of the tax return was provided to the board for review before filing of the tax return.

Response to Form 990 Part VI line 12C: Compliance with conflict of interest policy is monitored by the Board. As a general policy, the board member with conflict refrains from participating in the discussion about the transaction. We have not had any such situation till date.
